

MATERNITY SERVICE SELF-REFERRAL FORM

[Paper version for those unable to complete and submit online]

If you are pregnant and require maternity services, you can self-refer to our hospital using the form below. It is important you receive maternity care early in your pregnancy, so please complete our form as soon as you find out that you are pregnant.

Please complete all fields to your best knowledge. It is important that you provide your name, date of birth, address and contact details so that we can quickly get in touch with you to talk about your pregnancy and the care.

*Required information

About you:
Last name*	First name*	Known as
Date of birth* (dd/mm/yy)
Title (Mr, Mrs, Ms, Dr)
Is your gender the same as your sex assigned at birth? Yes/No	How would you describe your gender?	How would you describe your sexual orientation?
If you wish, share your pronouns (e.g. she, her, he, him, they, them)
Your ethnicity – please tick* ✓:	Asian – Any other Asian background Asian or Asian British – Bangladeshi Asian or Asian British – Indian Asian or Asian British – Pakistani Black – any other Black background Black or Black British – African Black or Black British – Caribbean Mixed – Any other Mixed background Mixed – White and Asian Mixed – White and Black African Mixed – White and Black Caribbean Other – any other Ethnic group Other – Chinese White – Any other White background White – British White – Irish Prefer not to say
Mobile telephone number*	Alternative telephone number	May we contact you by text message?* Yes/No
Email address
NHS Number if known
You can find information on how to obtain your NHS number here (https://www.nhs.uk/nhs-services/online-services/find-nhs-number/)
Please complete all address fields in full London hospitals.	so that we can contact you as quickly as p	ossible about your treatment at our House number or house name*
First line of address*
Town/city*
Country*
Post code* (e.g. W12 0HS)
How long have you lived here?
Are you a UK resident*? Yes/No	Read this link to understand why we ask this question. (https://www.birthrights.org.uk/wp-content/uploads/2021/08/NHS-charging-FINAL.pdf)
Are you a refugee or asylum seeker* Yes/No
Do you read and write English? Yes/No	Do you require a translator or British Sign Language*? Yes/No	The NHS does not recommend use of family members to translate.

Let us know any dates you are unable to attend for your first appointment
Your support network:
Emergency contact number*
Next of kin name* Their relationship to you*
Their relationship to you
GPs name*
GP surgery address and phone number*
Are you a member of the Armed Forces community? Yes/No
. 5.555
Pregnancy and maternity history:
What was the date of the first day of	(44/2222/222)
your last period, or the date of embryo transfer?*	/20 (dd/mm/yyyy)
Have you antenatal care elsewhere in this pregnancy?* If yes, where?
Yes/No
Is this the first time you have been pregnant?* Yes/No
If no, please answer questions below
Number of vaginal births:
Number of caesarean births: Number of instrumental births
(e.g. ventouse, kiwi cup, forceps):
Have you given birth to a live baby BEFORE 37 weeks? If so, how many weeks pregnant were you?
We understand the following questions methods this pregnancy.	ay be difficult for you, but your answers w	ill help us to provide the best care during
Have you ever had a termination of	Yes/No pregnancy? If yes, please give details Have you ever lost (miscarried) a baby	Yes/No before 12 weeks gestation? If yes, please give details Have you had any babies that were	Yes/No stillborn? How many weeks pregnant	1 65/140 were you? Please give details Have you had any babies born alive, who have since died? How old were	Yes/No they?
Did you have any medical problems in	Yes/No
a previous pregnancy, during labour, or after the birth of your baby (e.g. gestational diabetes, high blood pressure, pre-eclampsia, itching, severe bleeding)? Please give as much detail as you can.
Your medical history*.
Do you have a long-term medical or	Use this space to give further informa	tion if you wish.
mental health condition?* Yes/N If you have any of the following condition:
please tick: ✓ heart condition e.g. birth defect
high blood pressure kidney condition	\dashv
e.g. recurrent urinary tract infections stomach, bowel or liver condition
e.g. inflammatory bowel disease blood condition	\dashv
e.g. sickle cell, thalassaemia, blood clots endocrine condition
e.g. type 1/type 2 diabetes, thyroid neurological condition e.g. quelipsey, stroke, multiple sclerosis breathing difficulty e.g. asthma autoimmune or g. eczema, psoriasis cancer mental health and wellbeing concerns? Please provide details Anything else, not mentioned above? Medication (prescribed & over the counter medicines) Medication (prescribed & over the counter medicines) The NHS recommends a daily dose (400 mcg) of Folic Acid. Some people may need a higher dose. Find out more by reading the link. (https://www.nis.uk/pregnancy/keeping-well/vitaminis-supolements-and-nutrition/) Are you taking medication for any medical or mental health condition? If so, please list all the medications and dosages here, including any supplements (vitamins) Personal circumstances: we understand that these questions are sensitive. Please answer honestly so that we can arrange extra support where necessary for you and your family. Have you (or any of your children) ever had, or still have, a social worker? If yes, please give the name and telephone number of the social worker. Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the beat quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital	disease

breathing difficulty e.g. asthma autoimmune condition e.g. lupus arthritis skin condition e.g. eczema, psoriasis cancer mental health and wellbeing concerns? Please provide details Anything else, not mentioned above? Medication (prescribed & over the counter medicines) Medication for any medical or mental health condition? If so, please list all the medications and dosages here, including any supplements (vitamins) Are you taking medication for any medical or mental health condition? If so, please list all the medications and dosages here, including any supplements (vitamins) Personal circumstances: we understand that these questions are sensitive. Please answer honestly so that we can arrange extra support where necessary for you and your family. Have you (or any of your children) ever had, or still have, a social worker? If yes, please give the name and telephone number of the social worker. Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to delive the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital	neurological condition breathing difficulty e.g., asthma autoimmune condition e.g., lupus arthritis skin condition e.g. eczema, psoriasis cancer mental health and wellbeing concerns? Please provide details Anything else, not mentioned above? Medication (prescribed & over the counter medicines) Medication for any medical or mental health condition? If so, please list all the medications and dosages here, including any supplements, (including any supplements, (including any supplements, including any supplements (vitamins) Personal circumstances: we understand that these questions are sensitive. Please answer honestly so that we can arrange extra support where necessary for you and your family. Have you (or any of your children) ever had, or still have, a social worker? If yes, please give the name and telephone number of the social worker. Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwle appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community wis together as one maternity service to delive the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital autoimmune condition e.g. eczema, psoriasis cancer mental health and wellbeing concerns? Please provide details Anything else, not mentioned above? Medication (prescribed & over the counter medicines) Medication (prescribed & over the counter medicines) The NHS recommends a daily dose (400 mcg) of Folic Acid. Some people may need a higher dose. Find out more by reading the link. (https://www.nhs.uk/pregnancy/keeping-well/vitamins-supplements-and-nutrition/) Are you taking medication for any medical or mental health condition? If so, please list all the medications and dosages here, including any supplements (vitamins) Personal circumstances: we understand that these questions are sensitive. Please answer honestly so that we can arrange extra support where necessary for you and your family. Have you (or any of your children) ever had, or still have, a social worker? If yes, please give the name and telephone number of the social worker. Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give thirt. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one materinty service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital skin condition e.g. eczema, psoriasis cancer mental health and wellbeing concerns? Please provide details Anything else, not mentioned above? Medication (prescribed & over the counter medicines) The NHS recommends a daily dose (400 mcg) of Folic Acid. Some people may need a higher dose. Find out more by reading the link. (https://www.nlis.uk/pregnancy/keeping-well/vitamins-supplements-and-nutrition/) Are you taking medication for any medical or mental health condition? If so, please list all the medications and dosages here, including any supplements (vitamins) Personal circumstances: we understand that these questions are sensitive. Please answer honestly so that we can arrange extra support where necessary for you and your family. Have you (or any of your children) ever had, or still have, a social worker? If yes, please give the name and telephone number of the social worker. Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Many's Hospital mental health and wellbeing concerns? Please provide details Anything else, not mentioned above? Medication (prescribed & over the counter medicines) The NHS recommends a daily dose (400 mcg) of Folic Acid. Some people may need a higher dose. Find out more by reading the link. (https://www.nhs.uk/pregnancy/keeping-well/vitamins-supplements-and-nutrition/) Are you taking medication for any medical or mental health condition? If so, please list all the medications and dosages here, including any supplements (vitamins) Personal circumstances: we understand that these questions are sensitive. Please answer honestly so that we can arrange extra support where necessary for you and your family: Have you for any of your children) ever had, or still have, a social worker? If yes, please give the name and telephone number of the social worker. Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work tegether as one materinty service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick / your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Many's Hospital	e.g. lupus arthritis mental health and wellbeing concerns? Please provide details Anything else, not mentioned above? Medication (prescribed & over the counter medicines) The NHS recommends a daily dose (400 mcg) of Folic Acid. Some people may need a higher dose. Find out more by reading the link. (https://www.nhs.uk/pregnancy/keeping-well/vitamins-supplements-and-nutrition/) Are you taking medication for any medical or mental health condition? If so, please list all the medications and dosages here, including any supplements (vitamins) Personal circumstances: we understand that these questions are sensitive. Please answer honestly so that we can arrange extra support where necessary for you and your family: Have you for any of your children) ever had, or still have, a social worker? If yes, please give the name and telephone number of the social worker. Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work tegether as one materinty service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick / your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Many's Hospital
Please provide details Anything else, not mentioned above? Medication (prescribed & over the counter medicines) The NHS recommends a daily dose (400 mcg) of Folic Acid. Some people may need a higher dose. Find out more by reading the link. (https://www.nbs.uk/pregnancy/keeping-well/vitemins-supplements-and-nutrition/) Are you taking medication for any medical or mental health condition? If so, please list all the medications and dosages here, including any supplements (vitamins) Personal circumstances: we understand that these questions are sensitive. Please answer honestly so that we can arrange extra support where necessary for you and your family. Have you (or any of your children) ever had, or still have, a social worker? If yes, please give the name and telephone number of the social worker. Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our team across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital
Anything else, not mentioned above? Medication (prescribed & over the counter medicines) The NHS recommends a daily dose (400 mcg) of Folic Acid. Some people may need a higher dose. Find our more by reading the link. (https://www.nhs.uk/pregnancy/keeping-well/vitamins-supplements-and-nutrition/) Are you taking medication for any medical or mental health condition? If so, please list all the medications and dosages here, including any supplements (vitamins) Personal circumstances: we understand that these questions are sensitive. Please answer honestly so that we can arrange extra support where necessary for you and your family. Have you (or any of your children) ever had, or still have, a social worker? If yes, please give the name and telephone number of the social worker. Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home
Medication (prescribed & over the counter medicines) The NHS recommends a daily dose (400 mcg) of Folic Acid. Some people may need a higher dose. Find out more by reading the link. (hittps://www.nhs.uk/pregnancy/keeping-well/vitamins-supplements-and-nutrition/) Are you taking medication for any medical or mental health condition? If so, please list all the medications and dosages here, including any supplements (vitamins) Personal circumstances: we understand that these questions are sensitive. Please answer honestly so that we can arrange extra support where necessary for you and your family. Have you (or any of your children) ever had, or still have, a social worker? If yes, please give the name and telephone number of the social worker. Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital At home
Medication (prescribed & over the counter medicines) The NHS recommends a daily dose (400 mcg) of Folic Acid. Some people may need a higher dose. Find out more by reading the link. (https://www.nhs.uk/pregnancy/keeping-well/vitamins-supplements-and-nutrition/) Are you taking medication for any medical or mental health condition? If so, please list all the medications and dosages here, including any supplements (witamins) Personal circumstances: we understand that these questions are sensitive. Please answer honestly so that we can arrange extra support where necessary for you and your family: Have you for any of your children) ever had, or still have, a social worker? If yes, please give the name and telephone number of the social worker. Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwlife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwlife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home	•
Medication (prescribed & over the counter medicines) The NHS recommends a daily dose (400 mcg) of Folic Acid. Some people may need a higher dose. Find out more by reading the link. (https://www.nhs.uk/pregnancy/keeping-well/vitamins-supplements-and-nutrition/) Are you taking medication for any medical or mental health condition? If so, please list all the medications and dosages here, including any supplements (witamins) Personal circumstances: we understand that these questions are sensitive. Please answer honestly so that we can arrange extra support where necessary for you and your family: Have you for any of your children) ever had, or still have, a social worker? If yes, please give the name and telephone number of the social worker. Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwlife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwlife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home	Anything else, not mentioned above?
aneed a higher dose. Find out more by reading the link. (https://www.nhs.uk/pregnancy/keeping-well/vitamins-supplements-and-nutrition/) Are you taking medication for any medical or mental health condition? If so, please list all the medications and dosages here, including any supplements (vitamins) Personal circumstances: we understand that these questions are sensitive. Please answer honestly so that we can arrange extra support where necessary for you and your family. Have you (or any of your children) ever had, or still have, a social worker? If yes, please give the name and telephone number of the social worker. Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital	, aneed a higher dose. Find out more by reading the link. (https://www.nhs.uk/pregnancy/keeping-well/vitamins-supplements-and-nutrition/) Are you taking medication for any medical or mental health condition? If so, please list all the medications and dosages here, including any supplements (vitamins) Personal circumstances: we understand that these questions are sensitive. Please answer honestly so that we can arrange extra support where necessary for you and your family. Have you (or any of your children) ever had, or still have, a social worker? If yes, please give the name and telephone number of the social worker. Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital aneed a higher dose. Find out more by reading the link. (https://www.nhs.uk/pregnancy/keeping-well/vitamins-supplements-and-nutrition/) Are you taking medication for any medical or mental health condition? If so, please list all the medications and dosages here, including any supplements (vitamins) Personal circumstances: we understand that these questions are sensitive. Please answer honestly so that we can arrange extra support where necessary for you and your family. Have you (or any of your children) ever had, or still have, a social worker? If yes, please give the name and telephone number of the social worker. Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to delive the set quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital
aneed a higher dose. Find out more by reading the link. (https://www.nhs.uk/pregnancy/keeping-well/vitamins-supplements-and-nutrition/) Are you taking medication for any medical or mental health condition? If so, please list all the medications and dosages here, including any supplements (vitamins) Personal circumstances: we understand that these questions are sensitive. Please answer honestly so that we can arrange extra support where necessary for you and your family. Have you (or any of your children) ever had, or still have, a social worker? If yes, please give the name and telephone number of the social worker. Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital	Mediantian (prescribed 8 over the	The NHS recommends a daily does (400 mag) of Folia Acid. Some poorle may
Are you taking medication for any medical or mental health condition? If so, please list all the medications and dosages here, including any supplements (vitamins) Personal circumstances: we understand that these questions are sensitive. Please answer honestly so that we can arrange extra support where necessary for you and your family. Have you (or any of your children) ever had, or still have, a social worker? If yes, please give the name and telephone number of the social worker. Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to delive best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home
Are you taking medication for any medical or mental health condition? If so, please list all the medications and dosages here, including any supplements (vitamins) Personal circumstances: we understand that these questions are sensitive. Please answer honestly so that we can arrange extra support where necessary for you and your family. Have you (or any of your children) ever had, or still have, a social worker? If yes, please give the name and telephone number of the social worker. Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home	counter medicines)
medical or mental health condition? If so, please list all the medications and dosages here, including any supplements (vitamins) Personal circumstances: we understand that these questions are sensitive. Please answer honestly so that we can arrange extra support where necessary for you and your family. Have you (or any of your children) ever had, or still have, a social worker? If yes, please give the name and telephone number of the social worker. Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home		(Intips://www.nins.uk/pregnancy/keeping-weii/vitamins-supplements-and-nutrition/)
medical or mental health condition? If so, please list all the medications and dosages here, including any supplements (vitamins) Personal circumstances: we understand that these questions are sensitive. Please answer honestly so that we can arrange extra support where necessary for you and your family. Have you (or any of your children) ever had, or still have, a social worker? If yes, please give the name and telephone number of the social worker. Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home	Are you taking medication for any so, please list all the medications and dosages here, including any supplements (vitamins) Personal circumstances: we understand that these questions are sensitive. Please answer honestly so that we can arrange extra support where necessary for you and your family. Have you (or any of your children) ever had, or still have, a social worker? If yes, please give the name and telephone number of the social worker. Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home Dersonal circumstances: we understand that these questions are sensitive. Please answer honestly so that we can arrange extra support where necessary for you and your family: Have you (or any of your children) ever had, or still have, a social worker? If yes, please give the name and telephone number of the social worker. Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home
Personal circumstances: we understand that these questions are sensitive. Please answer honestly so that we can arrange extra support where necessary for you and your family. Have you (or any of your children) ever had, or still have, a social worker? If yes, please give the name and telephone number of the social worker. Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital	* 1
Personal circumstances: we understand that these questions are sensitive. Please answer honestly so that we can arrange extra support where necessary for you and your family. Have you (or any of your children) ever had, or still have, a social worker? If yes, please give the name and telephone number of the social worker. Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital
Have you (or any of your children) ever had, or still have, a social worker? If yes, please give the name and telephone number of the social worker. Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital	supplements (vitamins)
Have you (or any of your children) ever had, or still have, a social worker? If yes, please give the name and telephone number of the social worker. Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital
Have you (or any of your children) ever had, or still have, a social worker? If yes, please give the name and telephone number of the social worker. Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital
Have you (or any of your children) ever had, or still have, a social worker? If yes, please give the name and telephone number of the social worker. Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Many's Hospital At home
Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home	extra support where necessary for you ar	nd your family:
Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details. Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home		ad, or still have, a social worker? If yes, please give the name and telephone
Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home	number of the social worker.
Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home
Have you ever used recreational drugs? If yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and how often. Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home	Here were the second decrease of the second	one O. Marson places of an detaile
Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? *Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home	Have you ever experienced domestic violence? If yes, please give details.
Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? *Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home
Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? *Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home
Is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born? *Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home	Have you ever used repressional drugs?	If you departs what drugs you use (d) and how often
Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home	have you ever used recreational drugs?	if yes, describe what drugs you use(d) and now often.
Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home
Preferences for care: Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home	le there enything also you think we should	A know in order to augment you during prognancy, birth or ofter the behy is harn?
Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home	is there anything else you think we should know in order to support you during pregnancy, birth or after the baby is born?
Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home
Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home
Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home
Your first midwife appointment will either be at a clinic in the hospital or in a community centre. At this appointment you can discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home	Proforences for care:
discuss where you would prefer to have your pregnancy care, as well as where you would like to give birth. Our teams across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home across both hospital sites and the community work together as one maternity service to deliver the best quality of care for you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home you and your family. You can expect most of your midwife appointments to be held at a community centre near you. Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home	1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1
Where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference: Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home
Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home	you and your family. You can expect mo	st or your mildwire appointments to be neighbor at a community centre near you.
Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital St Mary's Hospital At home	Where do you wish to give hirth to your h	aby? Plagas tick (your preference:
St Mary's Hospital At home	where do you wish to give birth to your baby? Please tick ✓ your preference:
St Mary's Hospital At home	Queen Charlottes and Chelsea Hospital
At home	Queen Granottes and Griefsea Flospital
At home	St Mary's Hospital or mary or roopital
	At home
No preference	, a nome
	No preference			