

Modern Slavery Act – 2020 / 2021 Annual Statement

Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust (ICHT) provides acute and specialist healthcare for a population of nearly two million people in North West London, and beyond.

ICHT is committed to upholding the provisions of the Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Act 2015 and The Trust is committed to ensuring that no modern slavery or human trafficking takes place in any part of our business or our supply chain.

The Trust has a zero tolerance for slavery and human trafficking. Staff are expected to report concerns about slavery and human trafficking and these concerns will be acted upon in accordance with related Trust policies and procedures.

Staff are trained regarding modern slavery and human trafficking as part of safeguarding training within the Trust. Information is available to all staff and a reporting, escalation and support process is in place.

Should modern slavery be identified, immediate support and help will be provided to the victim(s) with necessary referrals being made to external partners as appropriate.
